

More jobs: the gift that keeps taking.

An increase in digital print jobs is good news until you consider the steps involved to get each file production-ready. Managing all that work manually is even more challenging as our skilled labor force shrinks. Process automation is the only way to complete essential file optimization and preparation tasks across dozens—if not hundreds—of jobs per day.

Stop wasting time and money on repetitive manual job prep tasks.

Let Xerox® FreeFlow® Core do all that work for you—in seconds. Its intelligent, rules-based automation puts manual prepress, makeready, and job routing tasks on autopilot, eliminating inefficiencies and waste so you can get jobs into your clients' hands faster and more profitably—and consistently meet tight service level agreements (SLAs).

“ You always hear that every challenge should be an opportunity. With FreeFlow Core, that couldn't be more true.

It's impossible to overstate the difference FreeFlow Core has made in our business.”

Jerry Turner, Graphicolor

“ I don't want to manage print jobs. I don't even want to see what each job is. I want to direct the flow of work to a printer...

FreeFlow Core allows that. We've dropped down from 130 queues to about 7.”

Mutual of Omaha

“ We've been able to automate 75% of our jobs within 3 weeks, and we'll have 98% automated in a few months.”
